

Corrogan-Waldron-or-Wallace-Family Member

The photo on the next page was recently emailed by Lynn Tuohy to the LSCGG in the hopes that a website visitor might be able to identify the individual in that photo.

If you can identify the individual in this mystery photo, please send an email to lscgg@sbcglobal.net The LSCGG will then send your information to Ms. Tuohy.
